

John Hodgson Biography , International Project Manager,Board Member& IPGF Website Administrator

585 King Street East
Toronto,
Ontario, Canada
M5A 0J7

John Hodgson enjoyed a career spanning over 38 years as Senior Director of Human Resources for a multi national hospitality company in Canada.

John brings over 30 years experience in Hospitality and Human resources roles with significant experience in providing HR support for over 22,000 associates in Canada, Alaska and the Gulf of Mexico.

John has his GCE from the United Kingdom and holds a degree from the City and Guilds of London Institute specializing in advanced culinary and management skills for the foodservice Industry. He also holds a wide range of industry certifications.

John was a past member of the Canadian Association of Food Service Professionals senior manager advisory council for over 5 years.

He has demonstrated many years as a volunteer fundraiser for the Arts, including Museum London and The Grand Theatre in London Ontario Canada. His volunteer work in capacity of directing and producing fundraisers saw support for the Sunshine Foundation and other significant not for profit agencies in Canada.

John was recognized as volunteer of the year for Save The Children, Toronto chapter in 2007.

John has been a longtime supporter of the international peace garden foundation and in recent years has undertaken to redesign and launch and maintain the latest version of the IPGF website. He currently functions as volunteer International Project Manager,a board member and website administrator for IPGF.