

Bio for IPGF Director, Ria Hudome – USA

Having grown up in a military family, Ria has traveled the world from a very early age. Ria is a graduate of Virginia Wesleyan College and received her master's in education from University of Virginia.

Ria has spent most of her professional career in the hospitality industry as a professional trainer.

Presently, Ria is a Regional Trainer for Hilton Hotels based in Virginia.

Her affiliation to the International Peace Gardens started over twenty years ago when she was a member of the delegation to plant the International Peace Garden in Pretoria, South Africa.

Ria joined the International Peace Garden Foundation as a director in the Spring of 2005.